History of UniSQ exhibition

The 'History of UniSQ' exhibition reveals the journey from the early development and establishment years (1960s) including examples of memories associated with university celebrations and anniversaries and the Distance & International Education program.

This display consists of:

- The struggle to establish a university

- Our beginnings

- Kumbari Ngurpai Lag Higher Education Centre (Indigenous Centre)

- Celebrations and Anniversaries

- Distance and International Education

- Other memorabilia under 'History of UniSQ'.

The struggle to establish a university:

- Minute of the Public Meeting held on 2nd December 1960 that led to the establishment of the Darling Downs University Establishment Association (DDUEA)
- Photo of the 'Barnstorming Tour' in 1963. A fundraising tour made in a small Piper Comanche aircraft visiting fourteen towns from Stanthorpe to Charleville in three days.

Our beginnings

- QITDD Handbook (1968)
- UCSQ Phoenix newsletter (1990)
- First graduation ceremony held on 2 February 1967

Kumbari Ngurpai Lag Higher Education Centre (Indigenous Centre):

- Reproduction of plaque and photograph associated with the official opening of the Centre on 15 August 1991

- Photograph of students after completion of the indigenous Higher Education Pathways Program in 2004

Celebrations and Anniversaries:

- 21st & 40th anniversary celebrations memorabilia

Distance and International Education:

- Information booklets

- Newsletters

- Newspaper articles

Other memorabilia under 'History of USQ':

- Foundation document

- UniSQ Proclamation

- Japanese Garden Master Plan

- DDIAE Minutes book

Foundation document: Darling Downs University Establishment Association (DDUEA) original Minutes book (1960).

Japanese Garden Master Plan (1982). Original. The Japanese Garden is adjacent to USQ's Toowoomba campus and is managed by UniSQ staff.

Darling Downs Institute of Advanced Education (DDIAE) Minutes book (1972). Original.

UniSQ Establishment, Early Beginnings, UniSQ Indigenous Centre, Celebrations and Anniversaries, Distance and International Education.

UniSQ Proclamation (Original). The institution was granted the status of university on 1 January 1992.