Academic Board

Responsible officer	University Secretary	Approval Date	28 March 2024
Committee Services Officer	Governance Officer (Academic Board)	Approval Authority	Council

1. Role

Academic Board is the peak academic body of the University, responsible to Council for assuring the quality of teaching, scholarship and research and plays a leading role in the academic governance of the University. Academic Board advises Council and the University Executive on any academic matter relevant to the University and works with them in achieving the strategic objectives of the University. In this role and through its functions, Academic Board addresses the requirements that arise from the University Act.

The University of Southern Queensland Act 1998, Part 4, Division 3, section 39, clause (3) states that the Academic Board must:

- a. advise the Council about teaching, scholarship and research matters concerning the University; and
- b. formulate proposals for the academic policies of the University; and
- c. monitor the academic activities of the University; and
- d. promote and encourage scholarship and research at the University.

The Board achieves many of its functions via its committees, which play a critical role in appraising the academic plans of the University. Academic Board and its committees also play a leading role in ensuring that the University is compliant with relevant Australian Higher Education regulations.

2. Functions

The functions of the Academic Board shall be to:

1. Set institutional standards for academic quality and outcomes and monitor the effectiveness of initiatives to improve the quality of teaching and learning, programs and courses and the student experience, domestically, internationally and through Third Party arrangements.
2. Make determinations on proposals for the accreditation and reaccreditation of all academic programs of study offered by the University.
3. Maintain oversight of academic and research integrity, including monitoring of potential and emerging risks.
4. Review and provide advice on the development and effectiveness of policies, procedures and schedules that guide all academic and educational activities, including approval of Academic Quality policies.
5. Monitor the quality of research, research training and research-related matters and associated policies and foster the development and maintenance of high standards and support for research and scholarship.

6. Monitor and review the effectiveness of delegations made under policies and procedures relevant to the role and functions of the Board and its standing committees, ensuring delegations are appropriately implemented.
7. Advise Council and/or the Vice-Chancellor on the academic aspects of the University's strategic plans, priorities and risk management, including evaluating the quality and effectiveness of educational innovations or proposals for innovations.
8. Evaluate annual self-reviews of Academic Board's standing committees to ensure that their referred responsibilities are effectively discharged.
9. Provide a forum to facilitate communication on issues within the higher education sector, and encourage discussion and dissemination of information within the University regarding good practices in scholarship and research.
10. Advise on matters referred to the Academic Board, within the remit of its delegated authorities, by Council, the Vice-Chancellor or other University officers.

3. Membership

3.1. Membership Structure

The membership of the Academic Board shall be:

1. Chair (Academic Board) (appointed by Council);
2. Vice-Chancellor (ex officio);
3. Provost (ex officio);
4. Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic Affairs) (ex officio);
5. Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) (ex officio);
6. Pro Vice-Chancellor (First Nations Strategy) (ex officio);
7. Pro Vice-Chancellor (International) (ex officio);
8. Dean (Academic Transformation) (ex officio);
9. Dean (Students) (ex officio);
10. Dean (Graduate Research School) (ex officio);
11. Dean (Learning and Teaching Futures) (ex officio);
12. Dean (Academic) (ex officio);
13. Academic Registrar (ex officio);
14. Four members of the professoriate, who do not qualify under categories 3.1.1 to 3.1.13, elected by and from the academic staff;
15. Two academic staff members from pathway organisational units, who do not qualify under categories 3.1.1 to 3.1.13, elected by and from the academic staff of the pathway organisational units;
16. Two academic staff members from the Academic Division excluding the Academic Affairs portfolio, who do not qualify under categories 3.1.1 to 3.1.13 and 3.1.15, elected by and from the academic staff of the Academic Division excluding the Academic Affairs portfolio;
17. Twelve academic staff members from the Academic Affairs portfolio, who do not qualify under categories 3.1.1 to 3.1.13, elected by and from the academic staff of the

Academic Affairs portfolio;

18. One academic staff member from the Research and Innovation Division, who does not qualify under categories 3.1.1 to 3.1.13 elected by and from the academic staff of the Research and Innovation Division;
19. One First Nations academic staff member elected by and from the First Nations academic staff of the University;
20. President of the Student Guild (ex officio);
21. One undergraduate student elected by and from the students of the University;
22. One postgraduate coursework student elected by and from the students of the University; and
23. One higher degree research student elected by and from the students of the University.

The number of elected academic staff members shall comprise at least 50% of the total Board membership.

3.2. Gender Representation

The University is inclusive of all genders and ideally the Board would comprise a balance of genders. The membership of the Board should not comprise more than 60% of any gender at any time.

Should the situation arise where any gender represents more than 60% of the membership, the person or persons of an under-represented gender next in line on the most recent Academic Board ballot shall be invited onto the Academic Board.

3.3. Campus Representation

There shall be a representative of the elected staff members from each campus. Where this representation does not occur as a result of the election of members in the categories 3.1.12 to 3.1.19 an additional member will be elected by and from the academic staff of the unrepresented campus for the term of the Academic Board.

Where there are no nominations from an unrepresented campus, expressions of interest shall be sought from the academic staff of the unrepresented campus and the Academic Board Executive Committee shall act to invite an academic staff member from that campus onto the Academic Board.

3.4. Elections

Elections for the Board shall be conducted in accordance with the Council Election Policy and Council Election Procedure. Election of student members will be conducted in accordance with the Students as Partners Framework.

3.5. Appointment of Chair and Deputy Chair

Nominations for Chair shall be sought from the academic staff. Criteria will be provided stating requisite skills, capacity and experience. A Panel comprising:

- Vice-Chancellor;
- current Chair (Academic Board), or Deputy Chair (Academic Board) if the Chair is a nominee, or a nominee of the University Council where both the current Chair and Deputy Chair are nominees; and
- University Secretary

shall consider the nominations and compile a list of up to three nominations. The nominations will be presented to Academic Board for individual ratification by secret ballot, the results of which will remain confidential to the University Secretary only. The list of ratified candidates will be provided by the University Secretary to Council for consideration. Council will appoint the Chair (Academic Board). It is expected that nominees for Chair will have prior Academic Board experience. The duty statement for Chair (Academic Board) is provided in Appendix 1.

The Deputy Chair shall be elected by and from the members of the Academic Board. Only elected members of the Academic Board are eligible candidates for the position of Deputy Chair.

It is expected that a member of Academic Board will have served on at least one Board Standing Committee prior to election as Deputy Chair. Duty statements for Chair, Deputy Chair and Board Standing Committee Chairs are available on the Academic Board website.

3.6. Terms of Office

Ex officio members remain members for their term of office. Elected members, with the exception of student members, shall serve for a three year term and shall be eligible for re-election, with no restriction on the number of renewable terms. Student members shall have one year terms running from 1 April to 31 March the following year, with an annual opportunity to continue their membership to a maximum term of three years without the need for an election. Student members shall be eligible for re-election after this period. The Chair shall serve for a three year term and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term through the standard nomination process. The Deputy Chair shall serve for a three year term and shall be eligible for re-election. The Chair and Deputy Chair may not serve for more than two consecutive terms in the same role.

3.7. Absences

1. Ex officio members of the Academic Board may nominate an acting person to represent them in their absence. The member should ensure the nominee is fully briefed and prepared to contribute to the meeting.
2. An elected member who is absent from two or more consecutive meetings without having been granted leave of absence by the Chair shall be deemed to have vacated the elected position, resulting in a casual vacancy.
3. An elected member who anticipates being absent with the approval of the University, from two or more consecutive meetings of the Academic Board, shall give prior written notice to the Chair for a leave of absence. During such absence, this place shall be filled by invitation to the candidate from the relevant membership category scoring the next highest number of votes at the most recent election. If no such candidate exists, then the Chair of the Board may invite a person from the relevant membership category to serve in this place.

3.8. Casual Vacancies

1. Where a casual vacancy for an elected staff member occurs in the first twelve months of the term of the Board the vacancy will be filled by the candidate from the relevant membership category with the next highest number of votes in the previous election. If no such candidate exists, the Secretary shall conduct an election to fill the vacancy.
2. Where a casual vacancy occurs more than twelve months into a term and with more than six months before completion, the Secretary shall conduct an election to fill the vacancy. If a casual vacancy is unable to be filled by election, the Chair may, after taking such advice as they see fit, appoint an appropriate person in the same category of membership to fill the vacancy.
3. Where a casual vacancy occurs in a term with less than six months before completion the Chair may, after taking such advice as they see fit, appoint an appropriate person in the same category of membership to fill the vacancy.
4. Where a casual vacancy occurs for the role of Chair or Deputy Chair, the process described in

3.5 will be reactivated.

3.9. Rights of Audience and Observers

1. The University Secretary, Principal Advisor (Academic Governance and Standards), Heads of School, Director (Library Services), Research Institute Directors, Deans and Associate Deans shall have rights of audience and debate, but not voting rights, at meetings of the Academic Board.
2. The Chair may permit observers to attend meetings of Academic Board. Observers have rights of audience only, that is, they may not contribute to debate and cannot vote.
3. The Chair may request those with rights of audience and/or observers to leave the meeting when confidential items are discussed.

3.10. Standing Committees and Sub-Committees

The Academic Board shall be assisted in its operation by the Executive Committee. Academic Board may establish standing committees as it sees fit. Each Standing Committee may co-opt members of the University to their membership for such terms as they may decide.

Academic Board may also establish sub-committees (independently resourced) under Academic Board or any of its Standing Committees, usually with a focus on specialised functions, to assist them to effectively carry out their functions. Sub-committees may co-opt members of the University to their membership for such terms as they may decide.

3.11. Ad hoc Working Parties

Academic Board and/or its standing committees may establish ad hoc and informal working parties to explore and make recommendations on specific questions or issues, as deemed appropriate. Working party Terms of Reference are approved by the relevant committee or sub-committee, with a copy provided to the next meeting of Academic Board.

4. Performance Evaluation

Academic Board shall undertake an annual self-evaluation of its performance. The summary report of the evaluation shall be submitted to Council.

5. Review of Terms of Reference

These Terms of Reference shall be reviewed annually by Academic Board, as part of the self-evaluation, to ensure they remain consistent with the Board's objectives and responsibilities. Any proposed amendments to the Terms of Reference shall be referred to Council for approval.
