Committee Services Officer	Governance Officer (Academic Board)	Approval Authority	Academic Board

1. Role

The Education Committee is a Standing Committee of Academic Board and is responsible to Academic Board for quality assurance processes for learning and teaching to promote an academic culture of excellence and to ensure positive student outcomes.

2. Functions

The Committee shall oversee, monitor and advise Academic Board on:

- the achievement of internal and external academic quality standards, including academic integrity, across all teaching, learning and scholarly activities, including through third party arrangements;
- 2. the quality of the student experience including, student progress and completions, and monitoring the effectiveness of interventions designed to improve student outcomes;
- 3. course and program approval, and program accreditation;
- 4. program review cycles and quality assurance processes, and their effectiveness in upholding excellence in teaching and learning;
- 5. the University's strategy as it relates to higher education and the development and promotion of innovation and excellence in learning and teaching;
- 6. the development, implementation, and review of the effectiveness of academic quality policies and procedures; and
- 7. compliance with applicable standards of the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021 and other relevant legislation and regulatory instruments.

3. Meetings, Reporting and Minutes

Frequency of Meetings:	Education Committee meets six times per year at specific dates and times as outlined in the University Meeting Schedule. Special meetings may be called by the Chair (Education Committee) as the need arises.
Conduct of Meetings:	The meetings of Education Committee shall be chaired by the Chair (Education Committee) or the delegate of the Chair (Education Committee). In the absence of the Chair (Education Committee) and where there is no delegation in place, the Deputy Chair (Education Committee) shall act as Chair. In all other matters, the conduct of meetings shall be as for Academic Board.

	The Education Committee is expected to work in conjunction with other Standing Committees of Academic Board.
Reports To:	The Education Committee must report to the next meeting of Academic Board after each meeting of the Committee. The Education Committee must provide an annual report on its activities and achievements, against its terms of reference, to the first meeting of Academic Board each calendar year.
Minutes:	Minutes shall be kept for all meetings.

4. Membership

4.1. Membership Structure

The membership of the Education Committee consists of:

- 1. Provost (ex officio) (Chair);

- 18. One elected postgraduate coursework student, elected by and from the students of the University.

4.2. Quorum

At a meeting of the Committee, 50% of its members with at least two elected members constitute a quorum.

4.3. Terms of Office

Ex officio members remain members for their term of office.

Elected members, with the exception of student members, shall serve for a term that aligns with the term of Academic Board and shall be eligible for re-election, with no restriction on the number of renewable terms.

Student members shall have one-year terms running from 1 April to 31 March the following year, with an annual opportunity to continue their membership to a maximum term of three years without the need for an election. Student members shall be eligible for re-election after this period.

4.4. Working Parties, Co-option, and Observers

The Education Committee may establish such ad hoc working parties as it deems necessary or desirable for it to carry out its functions.

The Education Committee may co-opt members of the University to their membership for such terms as they may decide. Co-opted members will have full voting rights.

By endorsement of the Chair, Education Committee, observers may be invited to attend meetings, noting that an observer may not contribute to debate and will have no voting rights.

4.5. Responsibilities of Education Committee Members

Some members are identified as coming from named organisational entities to facilitate the consultation process. However, members are not appointed to represent their particular organisational constituencies and are expected to contribute to the Education Committee in the overall interests and objectives of the University.

4.6. Absences

Ex officio members are expected to delegate their committee duties for any planned period of absence. The member should ensure the nominee is fully briefed and prepared to contribute to the meeting.

Elected members cannot nominate delegates to undertake committee duties in their absence. Extended absences (for example where an elected member is on approved leave from the University) will be managed as a casual vacancy.

An elected member who is absent from two or more consecutive meetings without having been granted prior leave of absence by the Chair, Education Committee shall be deemed to have vacated the position, resulting in a casual vacancy.

4.7. Casual Vacancies

Casual vacancies will be managed under the provisions of the Academic Board Terms of Reference.

5. Performance Evaluation

Education Committee will undertake an annual self-evaluation of its performance. A summary report of the evaluation shall be submitted to Academic Board by the first meeting of the following calendar year.

6. Review of Terms of Reference

The Terms of Reference will be reviewed annually by Education Committee to ensure they remain consistent with the Committee's objectives and responsibilities. Any proposed amendments to the Terms of Reference will be referred to Academic Board for approval.
