Academic Misconduct Process

STAGE 1	STAGE 2	STAGE 3	STAGE 4	STAGE 5
		(	0=0	C
SUSPICION	ALLEGATION	RESPONSE	ОИТСОМЕ	APPEALS
Your assessment item will be referred to the Academic Integrity Unit for investigation.	Check the date when you need to respond by.	Consider what happened and outline how you completed your assessment item.	Decision on if the breach is Category 1 or 2.	Once the outcome is received, you may appeal the decision.
A preliminary decision will be made on whether to proceed with a Notice of Allegation of Academic Misconduct or whether to dismiss the suspicion.  If the suspicion is dismissed, you may sometimes receive additional information with them to help you understand why the assessment item was flagged and how to avoid it in the future.  If there is enough evidence to warrant an allegation, you will receive further information to your student email address.	Read the Student Academic Misconduct Procedure. Understand the penalties you are facing. Decide if you need to admit to the allegation or provide material that explains your side of the story. Decide if you provide a written response or attend an interview with someone from your School, such as the School Academic Integrity Lead.	Can you explain any errors and discrepancies in the evidence provided to you? Were there extenuating circumstances that led to the behaviour that forms the basis of the allegation? Are there any other possible explanations? What evidence can you provide? Once your response has been received, a decision will be made based on all the available evidence and you will receive an outcome letter to your student email address.	Encouragement to seek support from the Library     Additional online training about academic integrity     Participation in a workshop about referencing     Requirement to attend a session with a Learning Advisor.     In most cases a penalty will apply such as your work being remarked, a certain percentage of marks being deducted, receiving 0 for your work or the course.     In extreme or repeated cases of academic misconduct, suspension or expulsion from the University is also possible.	Under the provisions of the Student Grievance Resolution Procedure. Providing you can establish the grounds to do so. Visit the Appeals website for further information.

Stage 1 – Suspicion

Your assessment item will be referred to the Academic Integrity Unit for investigation.

- · A preliminary decision will be made on whether to proceed with a Notice of Allegation of Academic Misconduct or whether to dismiss the suspicion.
- If the suspicion is dismissed, you may sometimes receive additional information to help you understand why the assessment item was flagged and how to avoid it in the future.
- · If there is enough evidence to warrant an allegation, you will receive further information to your student email address.

Stage 2 – Allegation

Check the date when you need to respond by.

- Read the Student Academic Misconduct Procedure.
- · Understand the penalties you are facing.
- Decide if you need to admit to the allegation or provide material that explains your side of the story.
- Decide if you provide a written response or attend an interview with someone from your School, such as the School Academic Integrity Lead.

unisq.edu.au

Stage 3 - Response

Consider what happened and outline how you completed your assessment item.

- Can you explain any errors and discrepancies in the evidence provided to you?
- Were there extenuating circumstances that led to the behaviour that forms the basis of the allegation?
- Are there any other possible explanations?
- · What evidence can you provide?
- Once your response has been received, a decision will be made based on all the available evidence and you will receive an outcome letter to your student email address.

Stage 4 – Outcome

Decision on if the breach is Category 1 or 2.

- Encouragement to seek support from the Library
- · Additional online training about academic integrity
- · Participation in a workshop about referencing
- Requirement to attend a session with a Learning Advisor.
- In most cases a penalty will apply such as your work being remarked, a certain percentage of marks being deducted, receiving 0 for your work or the course.
- In extreme or repeated cases of academic misconduct, suspension or expulsion from the University is also possible.

Stage 5 – Appeals

Once the outcome is received, you may appeal the decision.

- Under the provisions of the Student Grievance Resolution Procedure.
- Providing you can establish the grounds to do so.
- Visit the Appeals website for further information.

Where to get support:

Student Wellbeing &

Student Success Advising &

Learning Support &

unisq.edu.au